Policy Title: Suspension of Teaching Certificate	Effective Date: December 11, 2017
A teaching certificate will be suspended by the Idaho Department of Education after receiving a court order finding that a certificated employee: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Is ninety (90) days or two thousand dollars ($2,000) in arrears for paying child support; 2. Has failed to comply with a subpoena in a paternity or child support proceeding; or 3. Has failed to comply with an order providing for visitation with a minor child. The teaching certificate suspension will become final, without additional review or hearing. A certificated employee, whose teaching certificate is suspended, will be removed from the certificated employee salary schedule and will be paid as a substitute teacher until the school district is notified that the suspension no longer exists, or until the end of the current semester or term, whichever occurs first. Any certificated employee on a Category 1, Category 2, Category 3, or renewable contract, whose teaching certificate has been suspended by court order, or by the Professional Standards Commission, is in violation of the terms of the contract. The board of trustees will have the discretion to determine whether to retain or dismiss the employee whose teaching certificate is suspended due to failure to maintain a valid teaching certificate. A certificated employee on a renewable contract, whose certificate has been suspended, may be terminated from employment after receiving a due process hearing, as required by law. The issue to be heard by the board of trustees at the due process hearing under this policy will pertain to whether the employee has a suspended certificate, and is thus not qualified to hold a certificated position in this district. Legal Reference: Idaho Code Sections: 7-1401 et seq. 33-513(5) 33-514 33-515 33-1201 et seq. Policy Reference: Policy 7130, "Discharge of Certificated Employees" Snake River School District 52, 103 South 900 West, Blackfoot, Idaho 83221
