SCHEDULE SUPPLEMENTAL LEVY COTTAGE MEETINGS

The election for the supplemental levy will be Tuesday, March 10, 2015. The school board is asking patrons to approve a $775,000 supplemental levy each year for two years. The board set dates of cottage meetings, which will be held as follows: February 5, 2015 at 7 p.m. for Zones 3 and 5 (West Moreland and North Moreland) at Moreland Elementary; February 23, 2015 at 7 p.m. for Zone 4 (Riverside) at Riverside Elementary; and February 25, 2015 at 7 p.m. for Zones 1 and 2 (Rockford, Thomas, and Pingree) at Snake River Middle School.

Snake River attorney, Bryce Lloyd, discussed cottage meeting guidelines. At each cottage meeting, the explanation of the supplemental levy and why it is needed should be presented. Mr. Lloyd said that cottage meetings are to state facts and promote the positive. Two trustees will attend each cottage meeting along with Superintendent Gabrylczyk. Business Manager, Chris Nelson, will also be invited to attend. Mr. Lloyd reminded the board members that they have authority only as a board, not separately. Discussion was held about what can and cannot be said at cottage meetings. Should patrons bring up personnel issues, Mr. Lloyd recommended that the trustees direct patrons to the policy and procedure forms on the school website. The proper place for an open forum is at a board meeting.
